Dear Patrick,

On behalf of Creekside School I would like to thank you for taking part of MONROE #1 BOCES Superintendent Day. Superintendent Day is utilized to give our faculty and staff insights on topics and issues that face our times.

Your talk on "The Serpents Among Us" was very informative, and our staff feels that they have more practical knowledge that they can use daily to protect our children from sexual predators. Although this is a very difficult topic, nevertheless it is a topic that we must educate ourselves in order to better service our children.

Again, thank you for your time at our conference, and more importantly for your valuable contributions to our children and society.

Sincerely yours,
